Habakkuk - Wrestling with Faith // Week 3

Habakkuk 3:1-6, 16-19

Read Habakkuk 3:2-6. God gives the prophet Habakkuk a vision of himself here. If you saw this, what do you think your reaction would be?

What do you think Habakkuk is thinking and feeling after this appearance? (See Hab 3:16-19 for his reaction)

As seen before, God tells Habakkuk that he is planning to send the nation of the Babylonians to conquer Israel. In the face of this, Habakkuk finds a reason to rejoice. How do you think this is possible?

When you face difficulty, pain, suffering, or confusion about God's plan for you, what reasons do you have to rejoice?

What is the most challenging thing about rejoicing in those situations?
